Announcement of Company Name Change to Canon Medical Diagnostics USA, Inc.

Minaris Medical America, Inc. (Head Office: Mountain View, CA) is excited to announce that effective February 1, 2025, the company name will change to Canon Medical Diagnostics USA.

Since joining the Canon Medical Systems Group in July 2023, we have been diligently working on our integration and making all necessary provisions related to the name change. As these processes near completion, we are thrilled to officially transition to our new name on February 1, 2025.

This name change marks a significant milestone in our journey. It not only reflects our strong alignment with Canon Medical Systems Corporation but also reinforces our commitment to growth and innovation within the U.S. diagnostics market. Under the name Canon Medical Diagnostics USA, we will continue to focus on delivering advanced diagnostic solutions as part of the Canon Group.

Through this transformation, we remain dedicated to providing creative solutions, maintaining the highest standards of quality, and ensuring customer satisfaction. Our mission to enhance the quality of life through our diagnostic offerings will continue to drive us forward as we expand and evolve in this growing Healthcare environment.

We look forward to embarking on this new chapter and to continuing our journey of innovation and excellence with you.
